BVRC - Dessage from a judge's eye view - talk from Mary Robley on Thursday 13th March at The Boot Inn, Shipton Bellinger SP9 7UP, 7.30pm.

Mary is a List 2 BD dressage judge. BD Judges are listed 1 to 6, with List 1 being the highest grade.

Mary will give an insight into riding a dressage test from the point of view of what judges are looking for, and where marks can be gained or, more importantly, lost. It will be very much an interactive Q&A session, based on what you want to learn specifically, to improve your dressage scores. Mary is bound to have many anecdotes about her judging experiences.

Whatever fears you may have, Mary will have encountered them and have tips to help overcome them.

This talk is a must & will help in preparation for April's Novice Show & Spring Dressage competitions.

We look forward to seeing you there! Shipton Bellinger is easily accessible from all directions.

Cost £4 members £5 non-members.

The Boot boasts the largest menu in the world which can be viewed www.bootinn.com.

If you know you intend to eat then please let the pub know in advance. This will help them to schedule food preparation & cooking.

To order food please call 01980 842279 or fax on 01980 844077.

NB. Orders cannot be made via email.

If you are planning to come, please let Fiona know (07783 421181 email fiona.webb@bowen-technique.co.uk)

If you are unable to commit until the last minute, please don't let prevent you from coming.

You will be most welcome & food will still be available if you require it.

Directions: Close to the A303, on the A338, approximately 12 miles west of Andover, The Boot Inn is situated in the village of Shipton Bellinger, on the High Street.

The village is just North of the A303, on the A338, just South of Tidworth.
